Flight to paradise

Saturday November 14th, 2020. Andre and I will board a flight to Tahiti. We'll be aloft for 15+ hours and that includes a layover (somewhere in the world). The longest flight I've ever taken was 9 hours and that seems like nothing in comparison. So, pray for us. No crying babies, cranky pants passengers, overtired flight attendants, and a touch of good weather from NYC would all be appreciated :-)
